STINGERS IMPRESSIVE IN THERESA HUMES TOURNEY

The Concordia Women's Hockey team hosted their 20th Annual Tournament last weekend. For the first time in 12 years the Stingers had a legitimate chance to win the title and from the top-ranked team in the N.C.A.A. no less. The Stingers advanced to Sunday's final by defeating Cornell, 7-1 and Colby College 7-3. Northeastern reached the final by defeating Ottawa 6-2 and U.I.N.B. by forfeiture.

Northeastern entered the contest with a 20-0-1 record and a cast of experienced hockey players. Led by Canadians Donna-Lynn Rosa (Toronto, Ont.) and Susie Perkins (Brantford, Ont.) the Huskies held on for a 5-4 win.

The Stingers received outstanding performances from two players who had gone largely unnoticed in the tournament. Nancy Moore, who had been held to 2 assists in the Stingers two previous wins, had 2 goals and 1 assist for Concordia. Moore had tallied 8 goals and 4 assists in 3 regular season games. Co-captain Debbie Gill also had a fine game with 1 goal and 1 assist.

Tournament M.V.P. Therese Brisson was held to 1 goal and 1 assist which was a tribute to the Huskies defence. Brisson finished the tourney with 6 goals and 3 assists. Janet Neely also had a fine tournament tallying 4 goals and 2 assists.

Line Mercier, a former Ottawa Gee Gee basketball player and new to organized hockey, continued her impressive transition by scoring 2 goals and 3 assists in the tournament. Excellent 2 way player Jackie Montpetit had 2 goals and 2 assists in the Stingers' 3 games.

Earlier in the week, the Stingers trounced McGill, 10-2. Line Mercier (#3,4), Debbie Gill (#7,8) and Nancy Moore (#7,8) had 2 goals apiece. Donna Serrati (#2), Michele Lapointe (#3), Therese Brisson (#20) and Janet Neely (#9) had the other Concordia goals. Brisson leads the league in scoring with 20 goals and 24 assists in 11 games.

Laplante will try to break the record this week and will also shoot for the team record of 49 goals overall. Laplante remains among the nation's leading goal getters. Laplante needs 5 goals in his last 5 games to tie the Q.U.A.A. all-time record of 33 goals set by Rollie Hedges of Ottawa.
